PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT FORM

Date: 06/25/2019

CRN: 19-047199

I, Det. Eric Krawchuk #4661, Kansas City, Missouri Police Department
(Name and identify law enforcement officer, or person having information as probable cause.)

knowing that false statements on this form are punishable by law, state that the facts contained herein are true.

I have probable cause to believe that on 06/24/2019, at 13th & Grand in (Date) (Address)

Kansas City, JACKSON Missouri Dorian T. Miller
(County) (Name of Offender(s))

B/M, 12/29/1998 committed one or more criminal offense(s).
(Description of Identity)

The facts supporting this belief are as follows:

On 06/24/2019 at 2142 hours, officers were dispatched to the area of 13th & Grand in regard to a Strong Armed Robbery.

Upon arrival, officers observed the victim [REDACTED] to be lying on the ground, bleeding from the face, mouth and head. [REDACTED] also had two swollen eyes. [REDACTED] advised officers that he was walking down the sidewalk between 13th and 14th St. and Grand. He stated he didn't recall why he was there and that he must have been on his way home. He knew he was assaulted but was unable to give a description of the suspects. The next thing he knew he was on the ground and was hurt and that he was missing his Iphone with a black and white zebra like case.

Witness #1 ([REDACTED]), a security officer with Copaken Brooks who advised she observed the victim exit the bus and she observed the two black male suspects run off towards the victim. Ten minutes later an unknown pedestrian approached [REDACTED] and told her that a man was attacked. [REDACTED] went to the area the party saw the man and upon seeing the victim he realized it was the same person she saw exit the bus. [REDACTED] stated that one of the suspects was wearing a gray hoodie and black Nike shorts with the hoodie pulled up around his head. The second suspect was wearing a black hoodie with black shorts with the hoodie pulled up around his head. [REDACTED] was not present during the incident. That information was broadcast to officers.

Witness #2 ([REDACTED]), ATA bus driver, stated the suspects requested to get off the bus at 12th & Grand. He saw them run southbound and he stopped at a red light facing southbound and observed the suspects assaulting the victim. He then observed the suspects run south on Grand towards Truman Rd. [REDACTED] stated that the suspects that rode his bus were the same ones that assaulted the victim.

Officers in the area observed suspects matching the description had boarded a bus at 16th & Grand. Officers moved into the area and took the suspects who were later identified as Dorian T. Miller, B/M 12/29/1998 and [REDACTED] (juvenile) were taken into custody. An on scene ID was done with both witnesses who positively identified the two males in custody. A cell phone matching the description taken from the victim was located in Miller's right front pocket.

PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT FORM

Victim injury update as of 06/25/2019: According to TMC staff the victim has a broken facial bone, jawbone, nose, left shoulder and brain bleed.

On 06/25/2019, detectives contacted the suspect (Miller) at the Jackson County Detention Center. Miller read his Miranda Warning and Waiver, Form 340 P.D. signed the form and consented to give a statement.

Miller initially made up a story but then admitted that he and [REDACTED] had been at the listed location and the victim “bumped” him. The victim told Miller to watch it and at that point Miller struck the victim one time in the face. Miller stated he was unsure how he took possession of the victim’s phone but admitted to possessing the phone when officers stopped him. Miller stated that [REDACTED] stood by during the incident and had no involvement with the victim.
