[REDACTED] advised that upon turning around while still inside the business, he observed his vehicle to be missing and that [REDACTED] was still in the vehicle.

Video footage from the above address showed a white male wearing a large black coat with a light colored hoodie and facial tattoos entering into the Vehicle through the passenger side door, climbs into the driver seat, and leaves the business traveling westbound on 61st Street towards Raytown Road.

A third passenger of the vehicle, [REDACTED], a white male born [REDACTED], was located at Home Depot in Lee's Summit, MO., via a tip from an anonymous citizen. During the police pursuit and prior to Mr. Mitchell Jr.'s apprehension, [REDACTED] was dropped off at the Home Depot by Mr. Mitchell Jr. and was apprehended by Lee's Summit Police.

Detective Jackson contacted [REDACTED] at Raytown Police Headquarters, mirandized him and interviewed him. [REDACTED] invoked his constitutional right to remain silent.
