The car drove back to the area of the area of Laken Logan's Parkville residence, and stayed there until approximately 0700 hours on 09/24/2025.
On 10/22/2025 at 1120 hours, Laken Logan was taken into custody by KCPD detectives and SWAT officers. He was occupying the black 2025 Chevrolet Trax along with his girlfriend, Both and Laken were taken to KCPD Headquarters to be interviewed by detectives.
stated the following during her interview: Laken told her what happened a couple of days after the incident. He told her he was driving, and a car swerved into his lane almost hitting him. Laken's friend, was in the passenger seat of the car, and said to Laken "You better turn around and say something to him." Laken turned his car around to say something to the occupants of the other car. The occupant of the other car had

She asked Laken what he did with the gun, and Laken told her he got rid of it. Laken was read his Miranda Rights, and stated he understood them. Initially he said he did not know what we were there to talk about. After he was told that detectives had a lot of evidence as to what happened, he stated the following: He was driving southbound on a main street near where he worked. A car occupied by two black individuals swerved into his lane. He verbally confronted the driver of the other car. The other driver showed a gun, and Laken got scared, so he fired multiple shots at the other driver. Detectives continued to interview Laken, and get further details. Laken stated he and his friend, were in Laken's car. Laken was driving and was in the passenger seat. They were driving near their place of employment, when a car swerved into his lane, almost hitting him. made a comment about how close the car got to them. Laken was about to turn onto the street they worked on, but he decided to get back onto the original street (Chouteau Trafficway), and go after the other car. At that point, he pulled a backpack closer to him, which had a firearm in it. Laken stated he wanted to fight the other driver and get an apology. As he continued to go after the other car, he pulled the gun out of his backpack and placed it next to him in the center console. As they approached the intersection where the shooting happened, Laken pulled up alongside the other car and verbally confronted the driver, saying something along the line of "Watch how you're driving boy!" At that point, the driver of the other car raised a handgun up. Laken stepped on his brakes, grabbed his gun, and fired multiple shots towards the back windshield area of the other car. He first stated he was aiming for the driver's side of the car, but then said he did not know what he was aiming at. Laken stated "I killed a man that did not deserve it." He paused for a moment and then said "and neither did I." When detectives asked about where the firearm was, Laken initially said he threw it in the Missouri River. He then stated he sold it to an unknown male named. He then changed his Taurus G3 9mm handgun. Detectives and SWAT officers located at his place of employment on 10/22/2025 at approximately 1734 hours. He was transported to KCPD Headquarters to provide a statement to detectives. was read his Miranda Rights, and he stated he understood them. interview: He and Laken work together at the same employer. On 09/23/2025, they went outside on their break to smoke. They decided to go get food at Zaxby's in Laken's new car, which he described as a black Chevrolet SUV. As they drove back to work southbound on Chouteau Trafficway passing Harrah's, they observed two cars next to them in the right lane. Laken sped up to get ahead of the cars. Laken got into the left-hand turn lane to turn onto Deramus Avenue, which is the street they work on. One of the cars passed them very closely on the passenger side. Laken turned back onto Chouteau Trafficway, and began to follow the car. observed that Laken was turning red and was mad. He told Laken to "chill." Laken pulled alongside the passenger side of the other car, and said "Who you trying to hit boy?!" observed Laken to be holding a pistol in his right hand. The driver of the other car, a black male, was holding his arm up, but it was not pointed in their direction. could not see if there was anything in his hand. saw a passenger in the front seat of the other car as well. leaned back in his seat, and heard Laken "cock" the pistol slide (chamber a round), then fire three to four rounds. Laken drove away, and asked him "Why did you do that?" to which Laken replied multiple times "Bro, I don't know." They drove back to their place of employment, and finished their shift.

I request a warrant be issued and a bond associated with the warrant.
