1. I have probable cause to believe that, the Suspects, Shoop, Kortney M., W/F, DOB : 12/30/1990; [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. did commit one or more criminal offenses.
2. The facts supporting this belief are as follows:

On 04-06-2018 at approximately 2234 hours, I was on patrol in the area of WB 50 Hwy and Buckner Tarsney Rd., Lone Jack, Jackson County, Missouri, when I observed the suspect vehicle, a white Oldsmobile SUV , license place number, PP2 Y9H, passed my location with a broken left rear tail light.

As I attempted to conduct a traffic stop on the vehicle, it accelerated leading myself and eventually several officers from several different agencies in a pursuit. The pursuit lasted approximately 90 minutes and went through Jackson, Johnson and Cass Counties. During the pursuit, the driver of the vehicle later identified as Kortney Shoop, drove the vehicle the wrong up the WB 50 Highway exit ramp and then proceeded eastbound in the westbound lanes of 50 Highway. There were other vehicles on the roadway at this time.

During an attempt to box the suspect vehicle in to force a stop, the driver of the vehicle swerved at my patrol vehicle in an attempt to strike my vehicle.

The suspect then turned onto Buckner-Tarsney and then onto Colbern Road. While on Colbern Road, I saw shots being fired at me coming from the passenger side of the vehicle. I also observed during the pursuit that items were being thrown from the passenger side of the vehicle. A search of the area after the pursuit revealed several firearms and a bag of projectile parts of ammunition. Numerous spent shell casings were recovered from inside the vehicle on the front passenger floorboard and the back passenger floorboard. There were also several live rounds found throughout the vehicle.

Officers used spike strips to stop the vehicle. The vehicle became inoperable and the suspects were taken into custody. Suspects were identified by their fingerprints by Missouri State Highway Patrol.

The driver, Shoop was transported to the hospital after she stated that she had ingested heroin and Xanax.

Sgt. Greg Martin of The Missouri State Highway Patrol, interviewed one of the passengers identified as Hunter Fanara. Fanara stated he was in the vehicle but there were never any shots fired from the vehicle or firearms in the vehicle.
